Event Planner

If your clients should ask questions regarding Cielo and you are not familiar with our rules, capacity, seating arrangements, plan B for weather, etc., please do not assume the answers. We would very much appreciate you contacting our staff first so we are both on the same page. In our facility tours, we are very thorough with what is included/not included and what can/cannot be accomplished at our facility.

Day Of Planner

Please see above. Also, please check with other vendors first to see if a timeline has already been established by them. It will help you to be able to create a master timeline for all vendors to agree upon and follow
